

Kentucky

Devoted to

VOL. XIV.—NO. 11.

THE TRIBUNE.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY, BY
JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON.PRICE—Third street, north of Main.
TERMS.
Per annum, in advance, $2.00
Within six months, 2.50
At the end of the year, 3.00
2.50 No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publishers.ADVERTISING.
For each square of 12 lines or less, first insertion, $1.00
Each additional insertion, 25
Post and Procession Notices, each, 1.50
Announcing a candidate for any office, 1.60
Contests same mill election, 1.00
Extra announcement fees to be paid in advance.
Editorial discourse made to yearly advertiser,
$1.00Advertisements of a personal character,
charged double.
Notices of Religious and Public Meetings,
Meetings and Deaths, published free.
Obituary Notices, exceeding 12 lines in length, charged as advertisements.JOB-WORK
On every description, promptly attended to in the best style, on reasonable terms.

Professional Cards.

F. T. & P. C. FOX.
Attorneys at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.
Will attend to all business entrusted to them
in Boyle and the adjoining counties.
Aug 14, '56ROBT. J. BRECKINRIDGE,
Attorney & Counsellor at Law,
LEXINGTON, KY.
OFFICE on Short street, between Limestone and Upper.
Aug 23, '56J. L. BOLLING,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Main-Street, Perryville, Ky.,
Will attend to all business entrusted to him in Boyle and the adjoining counties.
Sept 7, '56SPEED S. FRY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
WILL practice in the Courts of Boyle
and the adjoining counties. Any business
confided to him, will be promptly attended to.
Feb 27, '56J. F. BELL,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.
May 25, '56BOYLE & ANDERSON
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
DANVILLE, KY.WILL continue to practice in the Courts of Boyle
and the adjoining counties. Any business
confided to him, will be promptly attended to.
Jan 2, '49THOS. Z. MORROW,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.WILL practice in the Courts of Boyle and the adjoining counties. Particular attention given to the collection of claims.
Office with Hon. J. F. BELL, on Main street, May 18, '56THOS. P. YOUNG,
Attorney at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.WILL practice in the various Courts of Boyle and the adjoining counties. He will act as agent for the sale or lease of Real Estate or Personal Property, and attend promptly to the collection of debts. All business entrusted to him shall be faithfully and speedily attended to, and no claim practically forwarded.
Office on Main street, opposite Court-house.
Aug 13, '56GEO. P. NEWLIN,
SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL DEVICES,
DANVILLE, KENT'Y.OFFICE—Up stairs, over Mr. J. H. Col-well's Store. Entrance on Main street.
Aug 18, '56DR. JAMES HUNTER
HAS determined to remain in Danville, and will devote his attention entirely to the practice of the various branches of his profession.OFFICE up-stairs over r. Budd's Silversmith Shop, in the brick building nearly opposite the Branch Bank.
Aug 22, '56

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned would respectfully announce that he has removed to the large and beautiful store room of Dr. T. W. Jackson, one door east of the Court House, where he will be accessible to all the public generally.
The attention of purchasers is invited to his present stock, which is large and complete in every department.

W. M. STOUT.

Aug 22, '56

T. J. SHINDELBOWER,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer inFine Groceries & Confectioneries, Fruits, Nuts, Preserves, Pickles, Oysters, Shadines, Cigars, Tobacco,
Fancy Articles, &c. &c.

Third Street, Danville, Ky.

Weddings and Parties promptly attended to in the best style.

April 11, '56

J. C. HEWEY,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer inConfectioneries and Candies,
Fine Groceries,
OREGON AND DOMESTIC FRUITS,
Perfumery and Fancy Articles.Igars and Tobacco; Wines and Cords,
dists; Oysters, &c. &c.,
No. 23, Main street,
Danville, Ky.

REMOVAL.

DR. J. B. WHITE

HAS removed his office to Dr. Jackson's building, second story, over Mr. Wm. M.
Stout's Drug Store.

News, Politics, Literature, Internal Imp-

DANVILLE, KY., FRIDAY MORNING,

Tribune

Robement and General Information.

OCTOBER 24, 1856.

Boyle Circuit Court.

JAMES H. McGINNIS' Adm'rs.

against

JAS. H. McGINNIS' Heirs and Creditors

IN EQUITY.

THE undersigned will attend at the office of Boyle & Anderson, in Danville, from the 10th day of September to the 1st Monday in December, 1856, to hear proof of and receive claims against the estate of James H. McGinnis, deceased. All claims not presented by the last named day, will be barred.W. C. ANDERSON, Mas. Com.
Aug 22, '56

Boyle Circuit Court.

NATHANIEL CURTIS' Adm'r.

against

NATHANIEL CURTIS' Heirs, &c.

In Equity.

THE undersigned will attend at the office of Boyle & Anderson, in Danville, from the 10th of September to the 1st Monday in December, 1856, to hear proof of and receive claims against the estate of Nathaniel Curtis, deceased.
Claims not presented by that day, will be barred.W. C. ANDERSON, Mas. Com.
Aug 22, '56

Boyle Circuit Court.

HENRY HAMILTON'S Trustee.

against

HENRY HAMILTON'S Cred's.

In Equity.

THE undersigned will attend at his office,
in Danville, until the 1st Monday in December next, to hear proof of claims against HENRY HAMILTON.

SPEED S. FRY, Com'r.

All persons having claims against the same
must prove them before S. S. F. Fry.

W. C. ANDERSON, Trustee.

Aug 22, '56

LINCOLN FARM
FOR SALE.

Contains about 236 Acres

I WISH to sell the FARM on which I am now residing, lying on the East side of the turnpike leading from Danville to Huston-ton, about 10 miles from the former, and 1½ from the latter place. The farmis in two public examinations each year, from which no pupil will be excused, without permission from the Teachers and Trustees.No deduction will be made, except in cases of protracted illness. Tuition due at the close of each half term.

JAS. S. HOPKINS, Pres.

O. BEATTY, Sec'y.

D. A. RUSSELL, Treas.

Danville, Aug 1, '56

KENTUCKY STAGE
COMPANY.

EXTRA DAILY LINE

From Lexington to Crab Orchard.

I HAVE about 75 Acres of CORN in the field, which I will sell on reasonable terms. Any one wishing to purchase the Corn for Hogs, can feed it on the premises if they desire it.I have also about 75 Acres of good BLUE GRASS, which I wish to rent out.

JAS. A. SLAUGHTER.

Boyle co., Aug 29, '56

FALL TRADE.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

WE are now receiving and opening on our stock of Dry Goods, and respectfully solicit a call from our friends and all those who are in want of the

LATEST STYLES,

— AND —

AT THE LOWEST PRICES

As we have all the grades of Dry Goods, from the lowest price prints to the finest quality of Silks and Satins, we deem it unnecessary to enumerate. All we ask is a call from those who are in search of Goods of the most fashionable styles, as we are determined to sell at the lowest prices for Cash, or to prompt dealers
on the usual time.

S. & E. S. MESSICK.

Aug 29, '56

ORDINANCE.

BE it enacted by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Danville, That the Ordinance passed and approved the 12th of April, 1856, in relation to Fair Banks, &c., be so amended as to impose a fine of $100 for a violation of the same, in lieu of the penalty fixed in said Ordinance. Attest,

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

— sept 12, '56

W. F. MARVIN,

BOOT AND SHOE MAKER,
Opposite the Central House.

Aug 29, '56

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to H. HAMILTON are requested to call and settle immediately.

W. C. ANDERSON, Trustee.

Aug 22, '56

Engleman's Mill.

I HAVE just resided my MILL
in the best style; with xmas
sawing, etc., &c., and so soon as the water will be available, will be prepared to grind Wheat or Corn,
and turn out as good Flour and Meal as any mill in the country.

JOHN ENGLEMAN.

Aug 22, '56

TOWN RESIDENCE
FOR SALE!THE HOUSE and LOT on 4th st., lately owned by Mrs. Foster, and now occupied by Prof. Resor, will be sold on very easy terms, and much lower than any other desirable property is offered in town. Enquire
of A. H. FLANDERS,

Aug 1, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

CIGARS

Oscuary descriptions embracing Regalas, Principal, Uniform, Cigars, &c., and so soon as the water will be available, will be prepared to grind Wheat or Corn, and turn out
as good Flour and Meal as any mill in the country.

JOHN ENGLEMAN.

Aug 22, '56

REMOVAL.

THE HOUSE and LOT on 4th st., lately owned by Mrs. Foster, and now occupied by Prof. Resor, will be sold on
very easy terms, and much lower than any other desirable property is offered in town. Enquire
of A. H. FLANDERS,

Aug 1, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

Aug 29, '56

H. H. HAMILTON.

Aug 22, '56

Main street.

M. T. CHRISMAN, CLK.

THE TRIBUNE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1856.

"Put now but Americans on Guard."

"FILLMORE AND THE UNION."

"If there be those, North or South, who desire no administration for it—North as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should give their suffrages to me. For my own part, I know only my country, my whole country, and nothing but my country."—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT NEW YORK.

"The foundation of my preference is, that Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, honest, and conscientious."—HENRY CLAY.

AMERICAN MASS MEETINGS

AND

B'ARBEQUES!

Grand Rallies

OF THE PEOPLE, FOR

Fillmore and Donelson!

Arouse! Arouse! the standard flies,
tigh sounds our bugle call;
The voice of battle's on the breeze—
Arouse for Fillmore, one and all.

The friends of Fillmore, Donelson, and the Union, will hold Mass Meetings during the month of October, at the following places:

In Boyle County,
At Parksville.
A Mass Meeting & Basket Dinner,
On Saturday, October 26th.

Distinguished speakers from all parts of the State, have been invited and are expected to be present at all the above gatherings. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Ample provision will be made for the accommodation of all.

In 1840, the State Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania, was elected by a large majority. Yet Gen. Harrison carried the State. In 1848 the Democrats elected a portion of their State ticket by 4,000 majority. Yet in three weeks thereafter, Gen. Taylor carried the State by 13,000.

Gov. Wright, of Indiana, is said to be a National Democrat. In a recent speech at Indianapolis, he declared that "IF THE POLICY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN REFERENCE TO SLAVERY SHOULD BE CARRIED OUT, NOT ANOTHER FOOT OF SLAVERY TERRITORY WILL BE ADDED TO THE UNITED STATES."

SOUTH CAROLINA MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—The delegates elect to the Thirty-fifth Congress from South Carolina, consist of all the old members except Wm. Porcher Miles, who is chosen in the second district in place of Hon. Wm. Aiken, who declined a re-election. The following are the names:

John McQueen. 4. Preston S. Brooks.
2. Wm. P. Miles. 5. James L. Orr.
3. L. M. Keitt. 6. Wm. W. Boyce.

GETTING TIRED OF THEM.—A movement is on foot in Canada to secure the passage of an act of Parliament by which fugitive slaves may be sent back to the United States. They are not considered very desirable subjects of Queen Victoria, and it is therefore proposed to make "Black Republicans" out of them
by shipping them back to the United States.

WHAT THE UNITED STATES WERE ONCE.—Capt. Nat Johnson—everybody knows Capt. Nat Johnson—was traveling in the cars the other day, when he overheard two Englishmen commanding this country in terms of unusual warmth.

"Do you like this country, though?"
asks Captain Nat.

"Indeed we do," replied the Englishmen. "We are surprised and delighted with everything we see; your institutions and habits and life are all so different and so much more wonderful and attractive than we had ever suspected."

"If you think so well of our country
now," rejoined Captain Nat, "good God,
what wouldn't you have thought of it if you had seen it before Pierce was elected President!"—N. Y. Evening Post.

THE DUTY OF THE AMERICANS OF KENTUCKY.—We think that all our friends understand what this duty is.
It is to organize immediately and vigorously in every county and every precinct. It is to make provision to exclude every illegal voter from the polls
and to bring out every American voter
to permit not one to be lost.

Let it be remembered and properly considered beforehand that the day of the election may be inclement, so that unless ample arrangements are made to bring the infirm and the aged to the polls
a large Fillmore vote may be lost. Let not the vote of a single Fillmore patriot be lost in this crisis from his inability to get to the polls without the aid of his political friends. Fellow-Americans, every man of you who realizes the importance of the present awful exigency
of the country will set upon the advice
we now give.—Low. Jour.

Buck! what a lie!—Low. Jour.

Mr. Corwin for Mr. Fillmore.

Mr. Corwin made an able speech in favor of Mr. Fillmore, at Carthage, Ohio, a few days ago. From a report of that speech in the Cincinnati Times we make the following extract:

"We are told now we are to vote for the North. 'Vote for the North!' This is as common a phrase as any other words in your mouths at this day. You are told of your Representative, Mr. Harrison, that he is sold to the South. Suppose he is sold to the South. Is it not quite as well as to be sold to the North?
(Laughter) Did George Washington inquire when Cornwallis surrendered the banner of England at Yorktown, whether the Republic that sprung into birth at that moment was North or South? Did he say, when he took the Lion of England, and fastened the talons of that eagle upon the Northern people? They say, and they know it, that he is the Northern candidate.
I do not say either of these gentlemen,
if elected, would represent any section of the people. On the contrary, it is my conviction it would not be in the power of a President to be North or South very long at a time. It is true, he may dispose his patronage to the North—threw to the hungry dogs who prowl about the kennels of office, a bone or a sop. But the question is, gentlemen, how shall we come to any harmonious agreement on this subject of electing a President?

Suppose one of you and Mr. Anderson, and myself, are engaged in a partnership business; and that Mr. A. proposes to give the control of this mercantile concern for four years to an individual whom you believed to be a one-sided
man, who would favor secretly and improperly the interests of Anderson. Yet, that you might be mistaken about this.
On the other hand, suppose you offer a man, and Mr. Anderson, believes he is not the right sort of person, but may give some advantage to you in the distribution of the profits—while I offer you a man against whom neither of you entertain a suspicion; and now, the question submitted to you, having regard even to the poor miserable pecuniary profit of the establishment, which one of these men will you take? You swear you will leave the firm and break up the business, if Anderson's man is appointed,
he cannot continue a member of the firm. Now, what shall we do, instead of destroying our business and sending our family to beggary and want? We will take Corwin's man. [A voice—this is Fillmore.] (Cheers.)

Mr. Corwin—I know him to be honest [Another voice—that is the man we are going to take]—a practical man, whom I believe to be suited to our present circumstances. And as we are indissolubly linked in the partnership of our confederacy, as in the illustration I have given, let us take a man in whom we all have confidence; who will hold the power we confer on him, with invari-
table certainty to the common advantage of us all.

Now, you are requested to vote for one of three men. I say nothing of Col.
Fremont. I believe he is a gentleman.
I say nothing about Buchanan. His principles are known to you, as is to me for the last twenty years. Put my main object in coming here is to disabuse the public mind as to the real principles and real opinions of Mr. Fillmore.—(cheers)—and I do not do that because Fillmore is the man I prefer, but
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I happen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

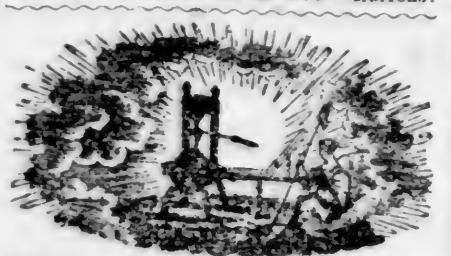

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,
as I would do it for Mr. Anderson (Chas.
Anderson, who was sitting in front of the
speaker,) or any other man whom I hap-
pen to be acquainted with—and because
I knew the public mind is not informed,
that it is daily abusively with misrepres-
sentations as to that man and his opinions
in the North.

He is equally misrepresented by parti-
zans in the South. In the South it
is said he is an ultra-Abolitionist—in
the North, that he is sold to the South.
Now, cannot you understand all this. If
I trust, if I understand myself, because
I esteem that duty to a personal friend,

FOR PRESIDENT,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ANDREW J. DONELSON,
OF TENNESSEE.

State Electoral Ticket.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE,
ROGER W. HANSON & J. W. CROCKETT
First District—SAM'L. D. DULANEY.
Second " " W. R. KINNEY.
Third " " ROBERT C. BOWLING.
Fourth " " W. C. ANDERSON.
Fifth " " PHILIP LEE.
Sixth " " GREEN ADAMS.
Seventh " " L. A. WHITELEY.
Eighth " " HARRY WARD.
Ninth " " W. C. DOWNEY.
Tenth " " W. S. RANKIN.

DANVILLE:

Friday, ::::: Oct. 24, 1856.

BEAR IN MIND
That the Presidential Election will be held on THURSDAY, the 4th day of November.

WOOD! WOOD!
A number of our patrons have agreed to pay their subscription, &c., in wood. We would respectfully inform such that we are now needing the wood, and are ready to receive it. We hope they will bring it in immediately, otherwise we shall present our accounts for the money.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.
We have on our books, a large number of accounts, which though small, when taken separately, make in the aggregate quite a large sum, and by the delay of many of our patrons in settling up, this sum is annually growing larger. We hope those of our friends who have already received their accounts, or who shall hereafter receive them, will consider themselves particularly and urgently called upon to pay up, as we very much need the money to meet our engagements. We sincerely trust that all concerned, will consider this matter, and promptly do us justice by settling the amounts of their indebtedness.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.
Dr. L. P. PINKERTON will preach in the Reform Church in this place, on Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock, and in the evening at half-past 6 o'clock. The meeting will be protracted during the week. Dr. P. will probably be assisted by other ministers.

HENRY'S FURNITURE SALE—CONTINUED.—Mr. G. W. HENRY's sale of furniture will be continued on Wednesday next, 29th inst., at which time he will offer to bidders, a fine and fashionable variety. His assortment is still very full, embracing much of his finest work.

COUNTY COURT DAY.—Last Monday, our October County court, was the occasion of even a more than usual gathering of the people from this and the adjoining counties. Our streets were thronged, and the "going, going" of half a dozen auctioneers, and the braying, neighing, bleating and lowing with which the town resounded, plainly proclaimed that Danville was rapidly growing in importance, as an inviting market for the sale of stock. County Court days are a great institution. "Long may they last."

POTTER'S SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.—This ready and interesting journal, has already taken its position as one of the leading sporting papers of the world. It is published weekly, each number containing 16 pages. The editor is the great oriel W. M. T. PORTER, formerly the life of the "New York Spirit." Mr. P. is assisted by GEORGE WILKES, a distinguished literary gentleman. Terms of the paper, $3 per annum in advance. Address, "Potter's Spirit of the Times," New York.

"No better time than the present for those who wish a good Ambrotype or Daguerreotype to have them taken. The weather is favorable, and a better picture can be taken in pretty, fair weather, such as the present, than when it is dark and cloudy. Mr. WHEELER is still on hand, and is filling all orders for pictures, in the very best style of the art. "Make hay while the sun shines." Rooms over Carpenter's and White's Auction Store."

Judging from the large number of persons who went from this place to the American Barbecue at Stanford, on yesterdays, there must have been an immense crowd present on that occasion.

Hon. J. F. BELL, THOS. M. GREEN, F. T. FOX, and W. C. ANDERSON, Esqrs., were in the delegation from this place, and we presume distinguished speakers from other points were also on hand.

Col. THOMAS L. JONES, Assistant American Elector for the State at large, is to speak in this place, on Monday, November 3d, at 1 o'clock. Col. Jones is making a most popular and gallant canvass. Our citizens may expect a rousing, cheering speech from him—just such a one as we want on the eve of the great battle. Don't forget to turn out and hear him.

THE BASKET-MEETING TO-MORROW.—Our readers will all remember that the great American rally and basket-meeting at Parksville, in this county, is to come off to-morrow. Let everybody make his arrangements to go, and by all means take his wife, sweetheart, or some pretty cousin, and a clothes-basket full of provisions with him. Let it be the meeting of the canvass—a meeting which shall foreshadow the increased American majority which little Boyle will roll up on Tuesday week.

THE ELECTION.—But a little over one week remains, ere the people of this great confederacy will be called upon to exercise their right as freemen, in the selection of the Chief Magistrate of the nation. In view of the near approach of the great contest, every American should feel called upon to bestir himself, and make a profitable use of the few remaining days. Let him not only make his own arrangements to be at the polls and vote, but let him exhort his American neighbors to do likewise. Let not an American vote be lost—bring in the sick, the aged—all, who are friendly to Fillmore and Donelson. Our opponents are making the most desperate efforts to carry the State—they have vast sums of money staked on the vote of Kentucky—and we have reason to believe that their leaders are preparing for an attempt to carry out a most glaring and stupendous fraud, in order to accomplish by corruption, what they cannot hope to do fairly. The vote of Kentucky is as certain for Fillmore, as it ever was for Henry Clay—provided the friends of Fillmore do their duty. They can, if they will, prevent illegal voting, and they should be on the watch at every precinct, in every county, not only for "black carpet-bag men," but for fraudulent voters of every kind, whether imported or home-made, foreign or domestic.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.—The full official returns of the elections held on the 14th in Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, have not yet been received, and of course the estimated majorities are all we can give from those States. In Ohio, the Black Republicans have a large majority, probably an increase over the vote given for Chase for Governor, last year. In Pennsylvania, the Buchanan ticket has been successful by about 6,000 majority, and in Indiana by about 5,000. In both of the last named States, the Buchanan party made the most desperate exertions—votes were imported by the wholesale from the adjoining States, and in Pennsylvania especially, money was used to an unprecedented extent. Thousands, it is said, of the Fillmore men of Indiana, either refused to vote, or cast their votes for the Buchanan ticket, while 20,000 Quakers of Pennsylvania, who are for Fillmore, declined voting at all in the local election of that State. The small majorities which the Buchanan party have received, are far from what they expected. They have been virtually defeated, and in November, when their thousands of imported voters will be required in their own States—when the people will be voting for Fillmore—the bogus Democracy may look for nothing but a complete rout of their forces—horse, foot, and dragoons. The Fillmore men have nothing to discourage them. They should be only stimulated to still greater and more untiring exertions, for our gallant standard-bearers.

FILLMORE men! stand to your arms! be true to your men and your principles. Our leaders are as noble patriots as ever bore the standard of the Union. Our success is necessary to the establishment of domestic peace, and the ascendancy of our principles is requisite to the preservation and perpetuity of our glorious institutions. We have in opposition to us, a sectional party in the North, and a party in the South, many of the leaders of which are even now plotting the disunion of the States. What can the country expect from such factious—what could be the result of the success of either, save continued agitation and civil strife? Be firm, then, and true, ye friends of Fillmore, and the Union, for as sure as the sun shines above, so sure is it, that the country can hope for peace and quiet by the election of no other candidate than Millard Fillmore. He once guided the ship safely through storm and peril, and is capable to perform the same service again.

MARK THE FACT.—There are, says the Charlottesville American, in Virginia and the rest of the Southern States, thousands of disunionists, ready at any moment and without additional motives to dissolve the union of these States. There are as many madmen in the North, as we can not where these disunionists may live, whether North or South, we defy any man to point out a single one who supports Fillmore. They are all for Buchanan or Fremont.

"ADZACKLY!—THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS."—Says the Covington Journal: "Whenever a Northern man sets himself up as the peculiar friend and guardian of Southern rights, and professes a greater zeal than Southerners themselves, he may be set down as either knave or fool. The South has had enough of the American party—just such a one as we want on the eve of the great battle. Don't forget to turn out and hear him."

The result of the recent elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana, demonstrated one thing very clearly, and that is, that Fremont is out of the fight for the Presidency. His supporters can no longer entertain a hope of his election. The Buchanan party can now cease their urgent appeal to the Americans to vote for Buchanan to defeat Fremont. The friends of Fillmore can all vote for the patriot of their choice, without having "Fremont! Fremont!" sounded in their ears at every turn.

THE SOUND NORTHERN DEMOCRACY.—The people have already been warned against putting any faith in the plies of Southern Democracy, that the Northern wing of that party is sound upon the slavery question. The evidence accumulates every day, to prove that wherever Northern Democracy can gain anything by it, they eclipse even Black Republicanism itself, in their loud professions of Abolitionism, and do all in their power to prove the Buchanan party the true anti-slavery party of the country. In Ohio, previous to the recent election, Democratic Mass Meetings were called, and the following is an extract from one of their bills:

THE UNION!
BUCK AND BRECK,
TO THE RESCUE!

There will be a meeting of the friends of the Union, those who are opposed to legalizing slavery in the Territories, and who are opposed to making all the territories of the next two years slaves for life, this evening, Saturday, September 29, at Winch's Hall.

In another bill, for a Democratic meeting at South Bloomfield, in the same State, the following language was used:

FRIENDS OF THE UNION!
BUCK AND BRECK.
RALLY! RALLY!

The friends of the Union and the Constitution will hold a grand Mass Meeting at South Bloomfield on Saturday, the 27th inst.

COME UP AND HELP ARREST THE SPINE OF SLAVERY OVER THE VAST TERRITORIES OF AMERICA AND NEBRASKA!!!! The Black Republicans in Congress have voted to pollute those Territories with slavery. Then come out, and bring your wives, your sons, and your daughters with you, and show these traitors that you feel an interest still in the preservation of this Union.

These meetings were to be addressed by those "champions of freedom," S. S. COX, Democratic candidate for Congress, Hon. J. Cradlebaugh, Democratic ex-U. S. Senator, Dr. Edson B. Olds, Democratic ex-member of Congress, and other distinguished members of the "sound" Northern Democratic party.

In Pennsylvania, too, we find the "sound" party playing the same tune. The Lebanon Advocate, a prominent Buchanan organ, exhorted its party just before the election, to rally, and give ONE DAY

LIBERTY AND UNION
AGAINST
SLAVERY AND DISUNION!!!

These are some of the samples of Northern Democracy. What do Southern men think of them? And what do they think of their boasted "soundness" of the Democratic party? In the North, wherever such a course will "count," they are boldly advocating the exclusion of slavery from the Territories, and in the South, pro-slavery though they are, they have been deceived by their party zeal, and led to endorse the principles of Squatter Sovereignty, as the best Free-soil measure ever proposed.

THE GALLANT AMERICANS OF PENNSYLVANIA.—The Fillmore State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, have refused most positively to enter into any union whatever with the Fremonters, leaving it a matter of choice to the latter whether they will vote for Fillmore and give the State to him, or by adhering to Fremont, give the State to Buchanan. A few days after this firm and patriotic decision, the disappointed Black Republicans, and a few dissatisfied Fremont Americans, held what they called a "Union" Convention at Harrisburg, and formed an electoral ticket.

We are glad to know that the Americans of the Keystone State have bitterly repudiated the alliance which was proposed to them. A correspondent of the New York Express writes from Philadelphia, that their action takes the State from Fremont, and will undoubtedly give it to Fillmore. "The Black Republican wire-pullers, (says the same writer,) openly give up the game, and however reluctant, they feel that they will have to go for Fillmore or do worse."

MARK THE FACT.—There are, says the Charlottesville American, in Virginia and the rest of the Southern States, thousands of disunionists, ready at any moment and without additional motives to dissolve the union of these States.

There are as many madmen in the North, as we can not where these disunionists may live, whether North or South, we defy any man to point out a single one who supports Fillmore. They are all for Buchanan or Fremont.

"ADZACKLY!—THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS."—Says the Covington Journal: "Whenever a Northern man sets himself up as the peculiar friend and guardian of Southern rights, and professes a greater zeal than Southerners themselves, he may be set down as either knave or fool. The South has had enough of the American party—just such a one as we want on the eve of the great battle. Don't forget to turn out and hear him."

The result of the recent elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana, demonstrated one thing very clearly, and that is, that Fremont is out of the fight for the Presidency. His supporters can no longer entertain a hope of his election.

The Buchanan party can now cease their urgent appeal to the Americans to vote for Buchanan to defeat Fremont.

THE AMERICAN BASKET MEETING at Parksville to-morrow. Go, everybody. Let

Each village, each sequestered glen, From its gray site, whose trembling hand, Can hardly buckle on his band,

To the raw hoy, whose shaft and bow Are yet scarce terror to the crow.

Still gathering as they pour along, A voice more loud, a tide more strong; Till at the rendezvous they stand."

To the American People.

A PATRIOTIC ADDRESS—READ IT.

The American State Councils of New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Kentucky have issued the following address:

Conscious of the danger which now menaces the institutions of our country, and feeling more certain than ever that the safety of the American Union must depend on a full and patriotic support of the whole people, and seeing that the present moment calls loudly for a prompt and decided movement, we appeal to every lover of our country to come with, and sustain us in our action.

Our platform is our whole country. Our principles are the people's good, and our actions the defense of the Union. United in action, we have a clear and sectional position on the other.

Upon this basis hangs our internal strength as a people, and our external power—just foreign encroachments.

By standing firm we shall build up the future prosperity and progress of our national principles. We seek no undue privilege nor favoritism. We give no countenance to the rabid Disunionists of the day, but maintain justice and right, combined with the equal privileges due to every free-born son of a country.

Be it known to the certain belief of those who represent the two extremes of disunion and sectional fanaticism, which is now openly admitted by the leaders of each of their parties, and disdains, while the country's integrity and character can yet be made manifest, the world through an election by the people, we call upon the national and conservative men, who have heretofore been allied to either of those parties, with no implied alliance with Fillmore, a candidate who already possesses the confidence of the nation. His qualifications as a statesman have been well tried. The soundness of his judgment is admitted by all. His integrity and his devotion to the Union find a response in the heart of every American citizen. He has once carried the ship of State safely through the perils of sectional strife, and we hold him now as the only candidate in whose hands we can safely place the reins of government.

[Signed.]

J. P. SANDERSON,
Chm. Fill. and Don. State, Com. of Pa.

JNO. C. CLAYDE,
Pres. Pa. State Council.

THOS. B. CLAY,
Pres. Ky. State Council.

H. D. MOORE,
Pres. Fill. Don. Union, Philadelphia.

W. C. ANDERSON,
Pres. N. Y. State Council.

E. R. JEWETT,
Pres. N. Y. State Committee.

HORACE H. DAY, N. Y.

STEPHEN W. ALLEN, Mass.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20, 1856.

For the Kentucky Tribune.

FROM OLD CUMBERLAND,
BARKSBURG, Ky., Oct. 16, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

Last Monday, the citizens of Cumberland assembled in mass in Barksbury, to hear an intelligent and eloquent Address from W. C. ANDERSON and S. B. MAXEY.

Dr. J. B. REYN, a

black "Mug" of Cumberland Democracy, waited on them early in the morning, and requested a division of the time with them. As is usual with American speakers, the proposition was accepted by them; Mr. MAXEY withdrawing, and leaving the field clear to Mr. ANDERSON and Ryan.

The crowd was so great as to overflow.

Mr. ANDERSON addressed the audience for an hour and a quarter he held the audience perfectly spell-bound. This was one of the most masterly efforts in defense of the platform and principles of the American party, we ever listened to in our lives; he showed the utter rottenness of that Janus-faced instrument brought forth by Cincinnati called the Democratic platform, demonstrated the fact that it was a stupid, ignorant, and foolish frame of mind of the framers of that instrument to derive both Northern and Southern, and showed most conclusively that it was a mere clap-trap to catch votes in all parts of the nation; that the Democratic party was united upon but one common principle and that was "the cohesive power of public plunder"—that the most ultra of the party, both North and South, could affiliate and harmonize with their hands in the public treasury. He pointed out with great clearness the evils of the bill that would result in the South, and the fugitive slave and squatter sovereignty features of the Nebraska bill, showing conclusively that Southern interests were better protected by the American platform than by the Democratic platform—said he was willing to repeat the issue the Democracy had made, and stake the issue upon the Kansas and Nebraska bill, as advocated by the two platforms.

The orator, Doctor, then arose, paid and received a hearty vote of thanks from the audience, who gave him a unanimous vote of confidence.

Mr. ANDERSON's oration was received with the most unanimous and unanimous vote of confidence.

Mr. MAXEY, however, did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a speech prepared, but did not speak.

He had a

The Kentucky Tribune.

DANVILLE, KY.

Friday, October 24, 1856.

JOHN VAN BUREN.—John Van Buren has been making a political speech at Chicago, and John and his speech are thus taken off by the Chicago Journal—Prince John was the undertaker who assisted in the burial of Cass in 1848, when his body was conveyed home by the way of the Lakes. He is doing the same thing now for Buchanan, only he is burying him alive. If Old Buck can stand such speeches as that of John Van Buren, he has got less Democratic blood in his veins than there is in a turnip.

PERPETUAL MOTION.—A joiner in Edinburgh, Scotland, has communicated to one of the newspapers the process by which, he alleges, he has discovered the long sought for perpetual motion. The invention is stated to be real self-moving power, which may be constructed of a size sufficient to drive all kinds of machinery at no greater expense than a little oil. According to the inventor's description, the machine is a wheel propelled by weights, the weights rising when the wheel turns to the angle of forty-five, and leaving three-fourths of the wheel empty. There are four weights or balls, two of which are always working the wheel, and the other two are on the center of the wheel, ready to fill the place of the others when they bring the wheel to the plain, and before it loses its power. The one ball at the bottom rises to the axle when the other comes to the top, and so on.

BEWARE OF THE INFAMOUS TRICK!—We have positive information from Washington City to the following effect.

Hon. Charles James Faulkner, the leader of the dirty work of the Democratic party at Washington, during the present canvass, had prepared a pamphlet, which is to be placed in the hands of the Negro leaders in every town, county, village and election precinct, with directions to put a copy in the possession of every Fillmore man a few days previous to the election in November, which pamphlet represents that Mr. Fillmore has withdrawn and calls upon all to go cheerfully for Buck. Mr. Fillmore is also a abused and vilified in a fashion peculiar to Faulkner and his lying committee men.

The friends of Fillmore and the Union everywhere look out for this base and infamous "trick;" let them talk about it—circulate it—and let it be universally known that this piece of rascality is to be attempted, so that the whole country may be forewarned and forearmed.—Memphis Eagle and Enquirer.

GOODLIE, BASSETT & CO. DIRECT IMPORTERS OF CHINA, GLASS, AND FANCY GOODS.

Looking-Glasses, Table Cutlery, &c.

IMPORT direct from the Manufacturers of England and France. We are at all times prepared to duplicate New York and Philadelphia bills, with carriage, and Cincinnati and Louisville bills without any addition for carriage.

OUR STOCK is now well assort with everything in the article, to which the public are most respectfully addressed.

ALL ORDERS at retail promptly executed, and on as low rates as any house in the West.

GOODLIE, BASSETT, & CO. Lexington, Aug 1, 1856.

Turnpike Notice. BOOKS for the subscription of Stock in the Boyle and Mercer Turnpike Road, will be sold at the County Courthouse, Danville, on Saturday, the 16th inst., at the residence of Col. A. G. KYLE, in Mercer county, on Thursday thereafter, under the superintendence of the following Commissioners appointed in the charter for that purpose:

A. G. TALENT, JOSEPH WIGHAM,

CHAS. CLARE, A. G. KYLE,

JAMES BURNETT, NELSON RUE,

N. T. LEE, GEORGE TRAPNELL,

DANIEL W. JONES, WM. H. ROBINSON,

C. T. WORTHINGTON,

Aug 8, '56 if

FOR SALE.

A HOUSE AND LOT in a town of Danville, situated on Cemetery street, immediately opposite the residence of John D. Tuckne, containing a fraction over half acre. The house is a comfortable one, containing two rooms. There is a variety of fruit on the new bearing.

It is all well built on an accommodating terms. Any person wishing to purchase can apply to the subscriber living 6 miles from Danville, on the Knob Lick Road, at the Sulphur Spring.

PETER S. NEVIUS.

Danville, April 18, '56 if

FINE DWELLING AND STORE HOUSE FOR SALE!

I WILL sell, on liberal terms, my BRICK DWELLING HOUSE in Danville, on the corner of 4th street and Broadway, and now occupied by Mr. T. C. Shouse; and also my STORE HOUSE, on the corner of 3d and Main streets. Both buildings are large, commodious, and favorably situated.

They can be examined by calling upon M.

J. DURHAM, in Danville.

April 25, 1856. if

HORSES AND MULES FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, living near Perryville,

offers for sale, a number of

Fine and well-broke Horses,

Suitable for harness or the saddle. Among them are several very fast Trotters, Pacers and Rackers.

Also, a lot of 50 NO. 1 Mules,

Two years old. He invites dealers and others to call and examine his stock.

JAS. F. CALDWELL.

Boyle co. Mar 14, '56 if

HORSES FOR SALE.

I HAVE now for sale, at my Farm, 6 miles from Danville, on the Perryville Turnpike, a large number of BRIDLED HORSES.

Nearly all of them strictly No. 1—for Beggars,

Carriages, the Saddle, &c. I have them singly

or in pairs; some of them nicked—bothered

and all the most popular gaits. I have to give the sale of five horse stock, and purchasers will generally find me pleased to suit them with any description of animal they may require, and on fair terms. Persons desiring to buy are invited to call on me.

D. N. HEATH.

March 6, '56 if

To Cabinet Makers!

GEORGE W. HEWRY

Is receiving the first lot of HARDWARE, ever brought to this city.

Aug 22, '56 if

Eastern and Home-made Shoes.

A VERY large stock of Boots and Shoes for Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses and Children. Also, superior home-made Shoes.

L. DIMITT'S.

Wooden and Willow Ware.

TUBS, Buckets, Cans, Bowls, Trays, Chars, Market, Clothes and Work Baskets, at CARPENTER'S.

China, Glass, and Quicksilver.

A LARGE stock, embracing every quality,

just opened by

WELSH & NICHOLS.

Miscellaneous.

NEW STOCK AT THE MAMMOTH GROCERY.

JUST received and for sale, wholesale or retail, by Taylor & Macle's bonus wagon: 4,000 lbs. N. O. Sugar; 2,000 lbs. Clarified N. O. for preserving; 2,000 lbs. Crushed Sugar; 1,000 lbs. "Pulverized" 100 gallons Butcher's St. Louis Syrup; 200 lbs. Sugar House Molasses; 400 lbs. Plantation " 1,000 lbs. Citrus Lime, to plaster colors; 2,000 lbs. Nails, from 3d to 9d; 200 lbs. Rusting Powder; 100 lbs. Rifle Powder; 200 lbs. Bar Lead; 200 lbs. Star Candles; 10,000 lbs. Safety Fuses; 500 lbs. Summer Mould Candles; 200 lbs. James River Tobacco; 600 lbs. Johnson & Co.'s G. R. Tobacco; 500 lbs. 5 Jingle Mixture; 500 lbs. bottle Liquor; 500 lbs. Lemon Syrup; 40 lbs. Schindian Schnaps; 1,000 lbs. Rio Coffee; 300 lbs. Java Coffee; 500 lbs. Rice; 200 lbs. Green Tea; 150 lbs. Black, Hyson, and Gunpowder Tea.

17 We have for sale Miller, Wingate & Co's Thresher and Hay Rake, that will raise where it ain't as where it is.

17 Also, Given's Straw Cutter, and the little Corn and Cob Mill. The large quantity we have makes us well near the Louisville prices.

17 We wish to buy Blue Grass, Timothy, Flax, and Hop Seeds, and any quantity of Bacon, Lard, Hams, Beeswax and Rags.

WEATHERFORD & LEE, Danville, June 27, '56 if

DR. J. B. WHITE

HAVING located himself in Danville, respectfully tender his services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country in the practice of Medicine, Surgery, and Obstetrics.

Particular attention paid to the medical and surgical treatment of

Chronic Diseases,

Especially those of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver, Rectum, and Urinary Organs. Cancerous Affections, Rheumatism, Paralytic and Neuralgic Affections, General Debility, &c. The effects of the Throat and Lungs, including the first and second stages of Consumption; also all the chronic affections peculiar to the Female.

I have also been practising the WATER CURE TREATMENT for 12 years, and will continue to practice that system, in all cases where it is desired, or is considered appropriate, either separately or in conjunction with the alternative forms of Medical treatment.

17 Country Produce, such as Bacon, Lard, Feathers, Boiled Eggs, Wool, Clover, Grass, and Hemp Seeds, &c., taken at the highest market prices, in exchange for Groceries.

HIGGINS & HUNTER.

Lexington, March 14, '56 if

Lexington Adv'ts.

J. B. WILGUS.

P. G. HARTNETT.

J. B. WILGUS & CO., Wholesale and Retail GROCERS, Commission and Forwarding MERCHANTS, No. 41 Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

THE undersigned, successors to Wilgus & Bauck, at the old stand, on Main street, in addition to the stock of the old firm, have received and are now receiving,

LARGE ADDITIONS OF GROCERIES

Of every description and of the best quality;

FINE LIQUOR, &c., &c.

Which they will sell on very liberal terms.

They solicit the patronage of the old friends of Wilgus & Bruce, and the public generally. Purchasers may rely upon always finding us with a good stock.

J. B. WILGUS & CO.

Lexington, Apr 11, '56 if

W. K. HIGGINS.

JOHN HUNTER.

HIGGINS & HUNTER,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers,

AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

LEXINGTON, KY.

A LARGE and well assorted stock always on hand, embracing

GROCERIES,

Of every description, and of the best quality;

FINE LIQUOR, &c., &c.

Which we will sell on very liberal terms.

They solicit the patronage of the old friends of Wilgus & Bruce, and the public generally.

Purchasers may rely upon always finding us with a good stock.

J. B. WILGUS & CO.

Lexington, April 13, '56 if

M. PRUDEN.

LEXINGTON, KY.

Dealer in Italian Marble,

MONUMENTS,

Tombs, Headstones, Mantels, &c.

WILL attend promptly to all orders for work in his line, at low prices as the same style of work can be had at any place in the Union.

17 All letters from a distance will be promptly responded to. No charge in case for consultation unless actual treatment is entered upon.

OFFICE—Up-stairs, over Stout's Drug Store, in Dr. Jackson's building.

J. B. WHITE, M. D.

Danville, May 16, 1856. if

No 1 Chewing Tobacco.

J. B. WHITE, of the following brands:—Rough and Ready, Fig Leaf, Natural Leaf, and various other brands of the very best quality.

L. DIMITT.

CIGARS of the best brands, just received and for sale.

L. DIMITT.

Danville Aug 8, '56. if

NEW STEAM MILL!

I WOULD respectfully inform the public, that my Mill is now in operation, and will grind Corn and Rye, regularly, on Tuesday and Friday, the 16th inst., at the residence of Col. A. G. KYLE, in Mercer county, on Thursday thereafter, under the superintendence of the following Commissioners appointed in the charter for that purpose:

A. G. TALENT, JOSEPH WIGHAM,

CHAS. CLARE, A. G. KYLE,

JAMES BURNETT, NELSON RUE,

N. T. LEE, GEORGE TRAPNELL,

DANIEL W. JONES, WM. H. ROBINSON,

C. T. WORTHINGTON,

Aug 8, '56 if

FINE DWELLING AND STORE HOUSE FOR SALE!

I WOULD respectfully inform the public, that my Mill is now in operation, and will grind Corn and Rye, regularly, on Tuesday and Friday, the 16th inst., at the residence of Col. A. G. KYLE, in Mercer county, on Thursday thereafter, under the superintendence of the following Commissioners appointed in the charter for that purpose:

A. G. TALENT, JOSEPH WIGHAM,

CHAS. CLARE, A. G. KYLE,

JAMES BURNETT, NELSON RUE,

N. T. LEE, GEORGE TRAPNELL,

DANIEL W. JONES, WM. H. ROBINSON,

C. T. WORTHINGTON,

Aug 8, '56 if

</div